

Little Death

Carsie Blanton

Verse 1

Bb F Bb

When he walked in his eyes were shinin', shinin' like a gun, his swagger was a force of nature, humbling everyone

5 C G C

His mouth was on his cigarette, his hand was on her leg, he hit her like an avalanche, he hit her like the plague. He said

9 C G F C

Chorus

"Hey now honey you look so pretty, do you wanna go home with me?" She said "No, maybe you could give me a lift." Well

13 C Am F G C

He's no good and she oughta know better but she don't know it yet, and oh to know him she'll die a little death.

17 Bb F Bb

Verse 2

When she got in her heart was beating like a baseball bat, it churned her blood to buttermilk, it fought her like a cat. His

21 C G C

Hands were on the steering wheel, her eyes were on his face, and grinning like a criminal he drove her to her place, said

25 C G F C

Chorus/
Interlude

"Hey now honey you look so pretty will you let me go home with you," She said "No" but her whole body said yes, well

29 C /B Am F G C

He's no good and she oughta know better but she don't know it yet, and oh to know him she'll die a little death

2nd x organ solo

33 Bb F Bb

Verse 3

When they got out the air was heavy, heavy as a sin, it filled her head like bourbon and she asked him to come in,

37 C G C

He took her like a devil there was venom on his breath, she bit him like an apple and she died a little death, said

41 C G F C

Chorus

"Hey now honey you look so pretty but I gotta be someplace." She said "No, baby don't leave me like this,

45 C /B Am F G C

Guitar only

He's no good and she shoulda' known better but she don't know it yet, and oh to know him she'll die a little death