

Wedding Song

Carsie Blanton

Instrumental

Cmaj9 E/B

5 F6 G

This
But the

9 Cmaj9 E/B

Verse 1 & 2

Morning you sat in a kitchen chair, remembering the life that had led you there, the Anger you felt was a satellite, and shot through the atmosphere, burning bright

13 F6 G

Beauty that saved you and gave you the gift of despair how the Left you exhausted and softened, too tired for spite and

17 Cmaj9 E/B F/A G

Cost of lost love made you deaf to the things that could heal you, how it
One thing led to another and one day followed the last and it

21 Cmaj9 E/B Am7

All came down to the day when you held him as close as you could, but his
All came down to the day when he held you as close as you cared, and your

25 G G/F G

Body was heavy as wood, and it hurt you to go but you knew he could no longer
Body was lighter than air, and pure as the rain as you emptied your pain out in-

29 Cmaj9

Feel you
-to the past and

and

Chorus
1 & 2

31 Em⁷ Dm Em⁷ Dm

All of the joy in you turned to stone, left you a spectre of flesh and bone, and you
All of the joy you've you'd been frightened of roselike a halo to linger above and you

35 Em⁷ Dm G

Had to submit to the sadness of staying alone____
Had to submit to the sweetness of stayin in love_____

Instrumental

39 Cmaj⁹ E/B

43 F⁶ G

So

Verse
3

47 Cmaj⁹ E/B

Open your arms to what love will give, say thanks for the good life you've come to live, for the

51 F⁶ G

Sorrow that bows us and shows us the strength to forgive